

Nego Bulletin

It is official. FNEEQ has formally approved the agreements-in-principle from both the central and sectoral tables. The vote counts were as follows:

	Sectoral table				Central table
	For		Against		For		Against
Unions	40	87%	6	13%	40	87%	6	13%
Members	3920	77%	1184	23%	3807	74%	1311	26%

FNEEQ's acceptance of the agreements means the formal conclusion of our negotiations and mobilization, including all committee boycotts.

We the executive would like to take a moment to thank and congratulate everyone for their contributions to this monumental effort. While we did not achieve total victory in the final outcome, we can count many accomplishments, particularly on the level of local mobilization and the resulting strengthening of our collective. We expect this more cohesive JACFA to be effective in enriching our working lives at John Abbott, for years to come.

In the pending issue of "JACFA News", we will provide a more detailed breakdown of the new Collective Agreement, along with an account of lessons learned from our mobilization
